PALMER'S REQUEST FOR FOOD CONTROL LAWS APPROVED

HOUSE COMMITTEE FAVORS STRICT REGULATION OF ALL DEALERS IN NECESSITIES. Provide Heavy Penalty FIVE THOUSAND DOLLAR FINES AND TWO YEARS IMPRISONMENT.

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—Attorney General Palmer's request for "teeth" in the food control law, to reach big and little profiteers, was today accepted by the house agricultural committee, and will be favorably reported to the house. The amendment provides $5,000 fines or 2 years imprisonment, or both, for hoarders or profiteers in the necessities of life, and brings within the scope of the law wearing apparel, food containers, fertilizers and agricultural implements.

The committee decided to eliminate from the bill its exemption of retailers doing business of $100,000 or less and recommendations for price-fixing by the federal government.

BOOSTERS VISITING LIMESTONE COUNTY

UNDAUNTED BY RAIN AND BAND PLAYING, OFF ON SECOND LEG.

Undaunted by the falling rain and with the band playing, the Albany Boosters left this morning on the second leg of their annual booster trip. Limestone county was visited today, Mooresville being the first stop.

In spite of the inclement weather a large number of cars followed the pilot across the Tennessee river and good crowds are meeting the visitors, reports received here declared. The band was conveyed in one truck today, in order that they might play while en route.

The usual load of souvenirs was carried along with the soft drinks and ice cream. The prize tickets being given away are attracting much interest. They entitle luck holders to prizes to be awarded by merchants of Albany during "Prize Week." Prizes are valued at more than $500 and none of them at less than $10.

SOLDIERS APPEAR AT MASONIC FRIDAY

Sgt. George and Sniper Bee, whose experiences during the war with the Hun have included every known form of fighting, terms in German prison camps, and other hardships, will appear at the Masonic theatre Friday night with an exhibition of high explosives and other interesting articles of warfare.

The soldiers recently appeared on the Orpheum circuit with their act and scored a hit. They have been visiting relatives in Tennessee, and while coming through here were booked by the Masonic.

Both have been wounded a number of times and still bear the scars of the service in France, Germany and Gallipoli.

Passengers Are Not Molested When Louisville & Nashville Train Number 7 Is Held Up Near Glendale, Tenn.

BANDITS BOARDED THE ENGINE AS IT TOOK WATER AT COLUMBIA

Outlaws Take Sack Full of Packages and Make Their Escape in Waiting Automobile.

Louisville and Nashville passenger train No. 7, due here shortly after 1 o'clock, was held up and the mail and express cars robbed at a lonely point near Glendale, Tenn., last night, and the train did not reach Albany-Decatur until nearly daylight. None of the passengers were robbed. The bandits escaped in an automobile.

According to advices received here the bandits climbed aboard the engine while it was taking water at Columbia. When the train reached the outskirts of the city the bandits, who were masked, covered the engineer and firemen with guns and told them to keep the train moving. Engineer Ray was at the throttle.

"Where do you want me to stop," the engineer said. "Keep going until you get to Glendale," he was told. "Do you want me to stop on the siding there?"

"Keep going until you see a man signal you with a light, then stop," the robbers declared. The train was halted by the swinging light just outside of the little Tennessee village and the engine, express and mail coaches detached from the remainder of the train. Under orders from the bandits, they were run a short distance down the track and the express and mail rifled. Early today no reports had been received here giving the loss, but it is known that the robbers made their escape with a large sack filled with bundles of some description.

Passengers Not Molested One of the passengers on the train was R. C. Hubbard, formerly district manager for the McLellan stores.

"The passengers were not molested in any way," he said. "The robbers apparently treated even the train crew with the greatest consideration. The conductor, when approached by them, told the masked men that he had nothing that wanted particularly, his pockets being filled with tickets. They patted him on the shoulder and told him they intended taking nothing whatever from him."

"After the engine had been cut loose from the train, the engineer asked if he would be permitted to return to his cab and get his lunch. The bandit who was guarding him replied cordially, 'Sure go back and get your lunch. Don't you know me,' and then pulling off his mask said: 'I am the fellow who robbed the train when the conductor fell dead.' He referred to another recent train robbery in this section. He told Engineer Ray he left this country immediately and just got back."

Escaped in Automobile According to Mr. Hubbard, the robbers escaped in an automobile immediately after the robbery. They appeared to be well organized, he said, and none of their plans miscarried.

After their departure frantic efforts were begun to get word to the outside world. Mr. Hubbard, accompanied by another passenger, struck off across a field in search of a telephone and finally arrived at a farm house but were unable to get the owner to allow them to use the phone.

Later members of the train crew went to Glendale and got in touch with the ticket agent at Columbia and gave the alarm.

The topography of the section in which the robbery was committed is ideal for a hold-up, according to Mr. Hubbard and persons here who are familiar with the track south of Columbia. There are few houses in the immediate neighborhood and the robbers seemed to be aware that they would not be disturbed.

Engine Ran Wild

The bandits, after completing the robbery, uncoupled the engine from the mail and express cars and it went swinging wildly down the track without a human aboard. Later it stopped near Wales, Tenn., when the fire underneath the boiler failed to provide sufficient steam to keep it going. The wrecker from the Albany shops went up after it. It is said to have been found in good condition.

The engine-less train was left standing on the tracks near Glendale several hours. Another engine from Columbia pulled it into Glendale and switched it on a siding while the engine worked its way to the front and coupled up again. It then brought the train on southward.

According to Carl Hays, well known employee of the Louisville and Nashville here, who was a passenger the bandits appeared to be youths, with the exception of the leader.

Another local passenger was E. Baker, outfielder of the Albany-Decatur baseball team, who was returning home from Waverly, Tenn., where he played a series of games with the Lawrenceburg team.

A Fuller Report A fuller report of the robbery was given by another passenger on the train, who had talked with Engineer Joe Wray in regard to the startling occurrence. He said:

"No. 7 left Nashville shortly after 9 o'clock last night and proceeded without incident to Columbia, Tenn. It was a dark, rainy night, and the big mogul plowed its way through almost impenetrable gloom. Just after the train pulled out of Columbia, two masked men climbed over the tank and covered Engineer Wray and Fireman Jack Mulvihill, both of Nashville, with their revolvers. Neither the fireman or engineer were armed, and they were at the mercy of the desperadoes. The engineer was at first told to stop, then the bandit who had him covered seemed to change his mind and ordered him to proceed until he saw a light. After proceeding about three-quarters of a mile, the engineer was forced to bring the train to a stop, and one of the bandits climbed off and ordered the fireman to uncouple the four cars—two baggage, one mail and one express. The coupling stuck, and then the engineer, under the escort of the other bandit, was called on to aid in the task. At this juncture Conductor Allen, who had come forward to see what the trouble was, noticed one of the masked men and mistaking him for the fireman, who he thought had burned his face, asked what the trouble was. 'Nothing,' replied the bandit, as he brought the conductor under the range of his heavy artillery. One of the bandits appeared to be exceedingly social, and told the engineer that none of the passengers would be harmed. Taking advantage of this, Mr. Wray asked that the flagman be sent back to protect the rear of the train. 'For God's sake don't let anything happen to the passengers,' he said. The request was granted, and a flagman went back. 'After some effort, the engine and four cars were uncoupled, leaving the engine in a state of confusion. The bandits then fled in the direction of the hills. The train was then taken to Glendale and the passengers were informed of the robbery. The train was then taken to Glendale and the passengers were informed of the robbery.

OBJECTIONABLE FEATURES REVENUE BILL RETAINED; OTHERS VOTED DOWN

Senate Authorizes Swarm of Office-Holders But Kills Chance to Get Results.

(International News Service.) MONTGOMERY, Aug. 21.—Late Wednesday afternoon the senate, acting as a committee of the whole, voted to restore the administration tax-collecting and assessing machinery in the revenue bill, but modified the system by voting into it the right of trial by jury in the circuit court, where a tax payer does not like the valuation of his property made by the county tax supervisor. The result is that with the machinery as amended in the senate, all of the expensive features, such as the establishment of 67 county tax supervisors and 22 district courts, to which strenuous objection is made, remained untouched and the real money-saving feature, that of doing away with costly trials by jury by which the present valuation of property is kept at a minimum because the state loses practically every case, was incorporated in the new system.

FOOD PRICES TO FALL IN OPINION OF EXPORTERS

(International News Service.) CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—The high cost of food is due for a drop within a few days, Chicago exporters of foodstuff declare, as a result of an eighty per cent decline in foodstuff exports during the past two days, due principally to inability of England to pay the current prices, owing to decline of the British pound sterling from $4.86 to $4.12. France, the exporters say, is understood to be overstocked and is not buying at present.

INDIANA TROOPS GO TO HAMMOND

TEN COMPANIES ARE CALLED OUT TO PRESERVE ORDER.

(International News Service.) HAMMOND, Ind., Aug. 21.—With ten companies of Indiana National guards en route to this city today, fears are held for a clash between striking employees of the Standard Car Company and city police. Special deputies have been constantly on duty at the plant since the calling of the strike several weeks ago.

The militia was ordered to Hammond late last night, following receipt of a message from county officials stating that they feared the situation would be beyond their control today. About 1,500 men, mostly aliens, are on strike, demanding shorter hours and increased wages. Late Wednesday the strikers notified the police that they would permit no one to enter the plant today.

FEW SAMMIES ON FRENCH SOIL NOW

WAR DEPARTMENT SAYS NEARLY ALL OUT BY SEPTEMBER.

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—To allay considerable anxiety on the part of the families of members of the A. E. F. still in France, the war department announced today that it had been advised by Gen. Pershing that all men enlisted for the emergency would be returned to the United States as soon as their services could be spared and transportation became available. By Sept. 1 it was estimated that there will be only 7,000 combatant troops and 25,000 troops in the service of supplies in Europe.

W. A. Hill Lands on American Soil

W. A. Hill, for several years connected with the Preuit-Dillehay Drug company, has reached American soil after a long service abroad with the American Expeditionary Force. A telegram today to E. E. Preuit from Mr. Hill says: "Landed in New York this morning." He will probably receive his discharge soon and return here.

Snake Attacked and Killed by a Bird

That the apparently gentle mockingbird is really of ferocious instincts and unusual courage was demonstrated yesterday afternoon when one of the species attacked and killed a snake, the only weapon used being its beak and wings.

A. M. Smith, postal carrier, witnessed the combat, which was staged near the residence of W. E. Todd, on Sherman Street. "The snake was about two feet in length, and as it crawled slowly along was pounced upon by the bird," he said, in relating the incident. "There was a spirited duel, then the reptile rolled over dead. Some small boys approaching at this time picked the snake up and threw the body into the weeds, also frightening the bird away. Later, after the boys were gone, the bird returned and hunted diligently for its prey, but without success."

Negro Robs Store in Broad Daylight; Escapes With Hose

An unidentified negro yesterday afternoon escaped with two boxes of ladies hose, valued at $13.50 from Speake, Echols and Speake, in one of the most daring daylight robberies in recent months here.

While several of the store's employees were at lunch, shortly after noon, two negroes entered the store and asked to be shown some ladies hose. After two boxes had been opened, one said he wanted to see ladies house dresses. As the clerk walked to the rear of the store and called another clerk, the negro remaining near the front stuck the boxes of hose under his arm and left the store. The clerk pursued him down Moulton street and overtaking him near the corner of First avenue demanded the return of the hose. The negro refused to be searched and drew an ice pick for defense. The clerk returned to the store and notified the police but no arrests have been made.

Robbers Enter the A. C. Watson Store

Breaking the glass of a front window, robbers entered the store of A. C. Watson in Austinville Tuesday night and escaped with groceries and dry goods valued at nearly $100. The thieves left no clues.

Big Farm Bought By W. T. Johnston

Lucian Sandlin, of Moulton, today purchased the W. T. Johnston farm near Tanner, the sale being made through Heston and McCluskey. The consideration is said to have been in the neighborhood of $12,000.

By-Laws Committee Reports Friday Night

The committee on by-laws of the Morgan county post of the American Legion will make its report at the regular meeting of the post to be held in the Decatur city hall at 8:30 o'clock Friday night. Several other matters of importance will be discussed, it was stated today.

THE WORM WIGGLES; HUNTSVILLE WINS THE THIRD CONTEST

LOCALS ALLOWED BUT ONE MARKER BY REJUVENATED VISITORS.

Halbrooks Finds Pill SECURED TWO OF A GRAND TOTAL OF THREE BINGLES. MANY ERRORS.

The Albany-Decatur baseball team, after taking two straights from the Huntsville band of ball tossers, went into the third game with a new bunch against them. The home gang were overconfident and started the last bout with the same ease that they had shown throughout the series. The result was that the Hames out fit got credited with another game on the wrong side of the ledger, the contest going 3-1 in the visitor's favor.

Price and Graham tied up in a brilliant pitchers battle until the sixth inning when the home bunch began to make errors and at the last of this fatal inning the Huntsville crew had a two run lead which the locals were unable to overcome though they fought a hard fight after that time.

The only man to connect with the pill safely for the home lot was Halbrooks. Chec got two bingles, one in the sixth and the other in the last, out of three chances. Halbrooks made the only tally of the contest on a walk in the first inning, was sacrificed by Steadman, took third while F. Barnes was taking three swings and then stole home in good time as N. Baker pouted to second on the next ball pitched.

The Huntsville crowd counted on three errors and two singles. Everett, the first man up flied to N. Baker. Watson was safe on Bingham's error. Price safe on F. Barnes error. Preston singled, scoring Watson. Tuck gained life when the ball made a bad bound over Bingham. J. Young singled along the left field foul line, Price and Preston spiking the rubber. B. Young ended the frame, hoisting to Wells. Phillips got the only extra base hit of the game, a double to right, but was thrown out on the try for a triple. Wee. F. Barnes to Bingham.

Bingham redeemed himself by the catch of a hard foul fly back of the score board after a long run. The locals threatened to knot the count in the last inning after Roberts, pinching for Wells, had grooved to short. Halbrooks got his second hit of the game through third. Steadman got a scratch to third, Halbrooks going to second, F. Barnes forced Steadman at second, Halbrooks taking third. Halbrooks almost pilfered home for the second time, but had to get back to third to save himself. N. Baker ended the home folks chance by grounding to the pitcher.

WEATHER HINDERS BANDIT PURSUIT BY CAVALRYMEN

AMERICAN TROOPS SCOURING FOOTHILLS HAMPERED BY RAIN AND MUD.

Carranzistas Aiding ACCORDING TO ONE SET OF REPORTS, WHICH OTHERS CONTRADICT.

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—The Mexican embassy here has been instructed to make appropriate representations to the state department and to request the immediate withdrawal of the "invading troops" of the Eighth cavalry, it was learned this afternoon. No representations have yet been made.

(International News Service.) MARFA, Tex., Aug. 21.—Mud in the mountain passes and swollen streams from heavy rains are hampering the work of the American cavalrymen who are scouring the Sierra Madre foothills for the Mexican bandits who seized two army aviators and held them for $15,000 ransom.

Contradictory reports have been received as to the part the Carranzista troops are playing in the little garrison towns in the northern part of the state of Chihuahua. One report said that they were being confined to their cantonments, while another had it that detachments had ridden out to join the Americans, and assist in the man-hunt.

It was reported that two Mexicans, believed to be members of Jesus Ventario's bandit gang, had been captured, but they had not been brought back to the line at the time this dispatch was written.

American airmen are not only acting as guides, at the head of the American cavalry columns, but are keeping up an unbroken line of communications between the detachments and headquarters. Rangers are helping the U. S. troopers to keep a keen lookout along the Rio Grande for Mexicans attempting to smuggle across the border and for stragglers trying to escape to the American side.

Maj. Gen. Joseph R. Dyer, commander of the southern department, will get a detailed report of the operations and the situation generally from airmen at Marfa headquarters.

CARRANZISTAS TAKING PART

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 21.—American cavalrymen who crossed into Mexico to run down the bandits who kidnapped two army aviators, were still advancing through the Sierra Madre mountains at latest reports this afternoon. It is now known positively that the Carranzista troops have joined the man-hunt, although they are not cooperating with the Americans.

A column of Carranzista troops was sent down the Conchos valley by Gen. Crunda, commander of the garrison at Ojinaga, to search the hills for the band under Jesus Rentario. As none of the Mexican officers would consent to accompany the Americans, Maj. Gen. Dickman, commander of the southern department, arranged for the two forces to keep in communication by airplane. One bandit has been killed so far, possibly a second killed and two more captured alive by the United States cavalry.

MISTAKEN ORDERS CAUSE COLLISION

SIX TRAINMEN KILLED AND FIFTEEN OTHER PERSONS INJURED.

(International News Service.) DETROIT, Aug. 21.—Six trainmen are dead and 15 other persons were injured late Wednesday when Perre Marquette passenger train southbound collided head-on with freight train No. 355, northbound, at Grawn, near Traverse City. Mistaken orders are said to be responsible for the collision.

ANNOUNCEMENT
(Paid Political Advertising.)
We are authorized to announce Hodges Crow as a candidate for Tax Collector of Morgan county, subject to the Democratic primary. Your vote and influence solicited.

THE DAYLIGHT SAVINGS LAW UNPOPULAR

That the daylight savings law was a most unpopular bit of legislation cannot be disputed. It was so out of favor, in fact, that though twice vetoed by President Wilson, it was repealed, the veto to the contrary notwithstanding. This is most unusual, and very little, if any legislation ever shared a similar fate. Democratic and republican congressmen and senators alike scowled on the innovation, which sought to ignore the rising and setting of the sun and to convert night into day. The entire Alabama delegation, for instance, solidly democratic and went to vote with the president, lined up in favor of the old order of things. For once, a measure was too progressive to make friends with either political party. With the passing of October, the clock will be turned back the hour that it was advanced during the war, and "sun time" will once more be the rule.

HIGH COST OF LIVING OR COST OF HIGH LIVING

(Birmingham Ledger.)
It is difficult to decide what we most suffer from, the high cost of living, or the cost of high living. The nation is indulging in an orgy of high prices. It will not stop until, as individuals, we separate ourselves from the orgy and think and act as we did before the super-excitement of the war and its aftermath took hold.

An apt description of the status is given by William Mather Lewis, director of the savings division of the treasury department, upon his return from a visit to the various federal reserve districts. He says:

"A very orgy of extravagant buying is on. The reaction from the careful use of money during war-time is widespread and disturbing."

With $10 silk shirts still in avid demand by young men of both colors, and girls believing that no shoe is good unless it costs $15 and $16, we see the orgy in daily operation.

None can blame a retail merchant for ordering this high-priced stuff if there is a clamor for it. It is his business to satisfy and gratify the public demand. Mr. Lewis says:

"Retailers are securing goods from jobbers without arguing about prices, if they can be secured for immediate delivery. They know their customers will scramble for the goods regardless of cost. Thus, with an abnormal demand and a limited output, nothing else can be expected by high prices."

Mr. Lewis is speaking of nationwide conditions. Our own observation indorses the reliability of his conclusions. As The Ledger sees it, and has heretofore expressed itself, it is not going to stop until Americans, as individuals, shake off the high-price mania and readopt the conservative mode of thinking and spending of normal times.

Voice of the People

S. A. LYNNE VOTED FOR THE WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION Editor Albany-Decatur Daily:

In order to correct a wrong impression that is going the rounds, I wish you would give prominence to the letter below from Mr. Mayer W. Aldridge, reading clerk of the state legislature. The wrong impression to which I refer was the current report that S. A. Lynne had voted against the "workmen's compensation act." Coming as it did this report aroused my suspicions. It seemed to me to have been stated at a time best calculated to hurt the Lynne consolidation bill, and to hurt the idea of the consolidation of Albany and Decatur among the working people. I could hardly believe that Mr. Lynne had voted against us, (though many did believe it, to my knowledge), as he had told me in the presence of another labor union man that he would vote for our bill. As will be seen the letter referred to shows that Mr. Lynne is standing right. Speaking briefly of his bill for consolidation of these towns, it seems to me now as the matter of representation has been placed so as to suit the most exacting, 5 aldermen for Decatur and 8 aldermen for Albany, the same men and the same number for each town as they now have, that the mouths of those who have cried unfairness and undemocratic rule are completely stopped, and the whole question resolves itself into this: Will the people stand for the old idea that has always worked injury to the working people, of keeping up certain trade centers, and the value of real estate in the heart of towns, or will they demand a vote for consolidation, that we be put in better trade relations with the farmers, have better and more roads into the country, etc, a chance for a big, well balanced school system and to have a single city that can co-operate with all the county and that can draw some worth-while industries to our midst? Will the people look to considerations like this or will they listen to bitter, destructive prejudiced talk that seeks to make Albany and Decatur enemies where they should be united friends all working together to get better advantages and opportunities in every way? I believe that when the time comes to vote—which will, in spite of the people who tried in vain to prevent the people from speaking, that a great big majority of our people will put in their vote for consolidation.

An exact copy of the letter is as follows:

"Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 16, 1919

Dear Sir:
Yours of the 13th. relative to the record of Mr. S. A. Lynne's vote on the workmen's compensation act," will say that I am not the clerk of the house, but only the reading clerk.

"However, I am charged with calling the roll on all measures and happen to have the information you requested. Mr. Lynne voted in favor of the "workmen's compensation act." Trusting this will be satisfactory, I am,

Yours very truly,
M. W. ALDRIDGE.
Will say in closing that I hope a close watchout will be kept by all the friends of consolidation, against false and misleading reports until the last vote is counted.

Respectfully yours,
E. M. JOHNS.

(By Arthur Brisbane)

(Written Thursday, Aug. 14, 1919.)

The distinguished Mr. Kolchak, of Russia, appears finally to have reached the end of his little rope. The United States and some other governments stupidly picked to force on Russia a hand-picked reactionary ruler have perhaps learned a lesson. Nobody in the United States Government is in any way equipped to select rulers or make laws for nations across the water. Two hundred million Russians will decide what they want to do without help from us. The sooner the people of this country instruct their official employees to mind the business of this country, the better it will for the United States.

Carnegie died rich, after all, but not disgraced. During the last few years he was not able, mentally, to look after his great fortune. Otherwise he might have carried out his plan to give it all away, except a few millions for his daughter.

Carnegie did something more important than mere giving of money. He made giving on a big scale fashionable in the United States. He chose for epitaph to be written on his tomb these wise words: "Here lies a man who knew how to enlist in his service better men than himself."

He was the first American of enormous wealth to say that millions accumulated by hiring better men than himself were not all his.

Don't be impatient about the world's condition until you consider what kind of people live on earth. You would not expect a chain to bear a great strain if every other link were made of paper. You can hardly expect a human race to carry its heavy load successfully when every other human is a savage.

One man was arrested two days ago for beating his own underfed boy, nine years old, with a leather trace for a trifling offense—not holding the baby as ordered. There were one hundred and eleven cuts on his body, and the boy may die. If he does not die the father will be punished probably less severely than he would have been had he stolen a horse.

Some men are on trial for tarring and feathering a woman, a Mrs. La Fleche. The tar was spread over her naked body almost boiling hot, and she is in the hospital struggling for life. One of the men that attacked her is held in one thousand dollars bail. If he had been engaged in some ordinary swindle he would have been held in five or ten thousand dollars bail.

STREET CAR MEN OUT AT NASHVILLE

WOMEN PICKETS ARE ON DUTY AND MANY DISORDERS REPORTED.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 21.—This city's transportation lines are completely tied up this morning as the result of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway worker's strike, called here at 9 o'clock last night.

Violence occurred in several parts of the city during the night, but no serious injuries are reported.

Women pickets are being used, and it is reported trolley lines and tracks were torn up.

We Vouch for Them

Of all the tires that are made, —why do you suppose we prefer to sell United States Tires?

Because they are made by the biggest rubber company in the world. And they know how to build good tires.

They have choice of materials,—they have immense facilities,—they employ many exclusive methods.

They can go to greater lengths in testing, improving and perfecting the things that make good tires.

We find it good business to sell United States Tires.

And—you will find it good business to buy them. They are here—a tire for every need.

United States Tires are Good Tires

We know United States Tires are good Tires. That's why we sell them. BURK AUTO CO., Albany. JOHN D. WYKER & SON, Decatur

Why This Mighty

Thousands Know, But Do Not Appreciate the Extent of Its Leadership.

Respect For Essex

It is like reminding the average reader of something he already knows to speak of Essex leadership.

Its position as a popular car filling a heretofore unoccupied field, is accepted as a matter of fact. By word and attitude all motor-dom acknowledges its position.

But let us consider the reasons for Essex prestige.

You will probably say it is because of its performance. You compare its general appearance and performance with the admirable qualities of other cars. You place no price limit on those cars to which you compare the Essex.

It is because the Essex so nearly matches the standards you hold as your ideal, that it is a leader.

Essex Matches All Requirements

There is ample evidence in every locality to account for what people are saying for the Essex.

It has spoken for itself, just as we announced it would have to do at the time it was put on the market.

It isn't necessary for us to say how fast an Essex can be driven. We don't need to speak of its performance on hills or its comfort and riding qualities. The car has proved itself.

And 10,000 owners are daily giving their cars opportunities to prove Essex worth.

Added to that are close to half a million motorists who voice their admiration. The most conservative and critical person having knowledge of the Essex is its sponsor.

Time Is Revealing Another Quality

It is showing that the Essex stands up under hard service. It retains the qualities which have created the respect with which it is held.

Squeaks and rattles are not so common. It is rigid and powerful. Little attention is required to keep the Essex in smooth running condition. Every day's use adds to the regard owners have for the Essex.

So Be Guided By What People Say

The best place to find out about the Essex is among those who have had their cars for some time and from the thousands who know Essex performance.

Come see what the Essex can do. If you don't know the Essex, ask your neighbor or come to us and take a ride.

Judge Essex qualities for yourself and remember that sales are so large it will be well for you to place your order as far in advance of the time you will require delivery, as it will be possible for you to do.

NEW COURT HOUSE NOW IS OCCUPIED

The Limestone county officials have moved into the new courthouse and now occupy their handsome offices, according to The Alabama Courier, which says:

"The various county officials have moved to the handsome court house and now when you want to see one of more of the county officials you do not have to run all over town to find them, but just go to the magnificent temple of justice, clean your feet well and mount the steps leading to the first floor and there on the various doors in handsome lettering you will be able to find the man you are looking for."

All the county officers with the exception of the superintendent of education are on the first floor. Col. Clements was assigned a closet of a room on the second floor, but he could hardly get the necessary furniture in it and so prevailed on the county commissioners to allow him to occupy one of the basement rooms, a large, airy and comfortable room in the southwest corner of the building. You do not have to climb steps to get to his office, just enter from under the marble archway.

The building cost a large sum above the original price, we are informed, just what we have not learned, but it is being figured and we will be able to tell the people just what the building cost over the original contract which was broken by the commissioners after they assumed office. The bond, we are informed which was taken to protect the county on the original contract, seems to have been made void by the breaking of the original contract, hence the county stands the entire loss on account of the contractors failing in their contract to complete the building.

But one consolation remains, that the county has the finest and best courthouse in the south.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

vs.
ARNOLD BRANDLEY, et al.
Morgan County Circuit Court
In Equity

In this cause, it is made to appear to the Register, by the affidavit of Solicitor for Complainant, that the defendants Arnold Brandley, C. A. Mitchell, Estelle W. Brandley, George E. Brandley, Ed Brandley, Emma B. Brandley, Edwin S. Baker, Virginia Baker and Frances E. Baker are non-residents of the State of Alabama, and that their respective residences and post-office address are unknown and can not be ascertained after diligent effort, and further, that the defendants are over the age of twenty-one years.

It is therefore ordered by the Register that publication be made in the Albany-Decatur Daily, a newspaper published in the County of Morgan once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring the said Arnold Brandley, C. A. Mitchell, Nancy Mitchell, Estelle W. Brandley, George E. Brandley, Ed Brandley, Emma B. Brandley, Edwin S. Baker, Virginia Baker and Frances E. Baker to plead answer or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 6th day of September, 1919, or in thirty days hereafter a default confession may be taken against them in said cause.
This 6th day of August, 1919.

TENNESSEANS DEFEAT WAVERLY, AFTER DROPPING ONE GAME.

LAWRENCEBURG, Tenn., Aug. 21. (Special).—The Lawrenceburg baseball team returned home today from Waverly where they played a three game series with the strong Waverly team. The team won two and lost one. Waverly won the first game on Monday by shutting out the local team by the score of 5 to 0. McCulloch was knocked from the box in the sixth and Brooks finished the game. Brooks came back on Tuesday and won a pitcher's battle from Wylie by the score of two to one. The game yesterday was a runaway for the locals, they securing twenty hits and fifteen runs while the Waverly team was making only two scores which were made after Ray Bake eased up after his teammates had given him a good lead.

The team will play the City Hat team of Nashville here Friday and Saturday.

A three game series at Lyncoville beginning on Thursday of next week will be played with the strong Albany Decatur team, after which the two teams will go to Albany for a three game series.

Arrangements have been completed for a game here on Friday, September 5, with the Nashville Southern League team. This will be the first appearance of a Southern League team here and a large crowd will be on hand to see what the champion amateur team of this section can do with the professionals.

GIRLS! USE LEMONS
FOR SUNBURN, TAN

Try It! Make this lemon lotion to whiten your tanned or freckled skin.

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion whitener, at very, very small cost.
Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands and see how quickly the freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.—Advertisements.

MORGAN BOY WINS PRIZE AT AUBURN

AUBURN, Ala., Aug. 21. (Special).—About 200 boys in various sections of Alabama doubtless spent Sunday in all their families and playmates about the wonderful things they saw and heard in Auburn while attending the annual short course in agriculture for club boys. They probably began with the swimming pool, the watermelon cuts, the base ball games, the free picture shows, for pleasure comes large in the curriculum of every healthy, round faced school boy.

But after this phase of their trip had been exhausted there were other things to tell of equal interest. By virtue of a thoughtfully prepared program much of the instruction to the boys was given out of doors in the fields. There was the model hog house, the self feeder, the construction of the sweet potato storage house, the selection of seed corn, the pruning and pruning demonstrations in the orchards, the poisoning of the boll weevil, the judging of swine, dairy stock and cattle.

And, then there came a long list of men and specialists prominent in the agricultural work of the Nation and the State, who talked to them intimately in the big auditorium of the agricultural building. To these speakers the boys unfolded their simple problems, asked questions and received such good advice.

Then there came the contests for the best essays. First: "On What the Club Work has been Worth to my Community," which was won by Talbot Tapscott, Falkville, Morgan county. Second: "What this Club has been Worth to me," won by Wallace Carpenter, Talladega, with Austin Venable of Wetumpka winning honorable mention.

And there can be no doubt but what the boys mentioned with gratitude the names of J. C. Ford, P. O. Davis and Jas. L. Herron, Assistant Boys club Agents, who organized and handled the boys while they were in Auburn;—and especially of Mrs. F. R. Yarbrough who kept house for them in the college dormitory and supplied them with their "daily eats."

L. N. Duncan, Superintendent of the Junior Home Economics Division, states that "The 1919 short course outranks all previous ones in the following points, the boys were better organized from start to finish. The course of instruction was more systematic and better co-ordinated than any previous year. The boys enjoyed themselves more, were wide awake, more enthusiastic and more anxious to learn than they have ever been before.

What Is Wise Spending?

Wise spending is the foundation of intelligent saving. We must spend to live; just as we must work to earn.

If we spend foolishly, we get less for our work, have less to save, less to spend in the future.

Wise spending means that we think before we spend. Then we buy, to our ability, what we really need today. But we wisely hold some money, for tomorrow's, or next month's or next year's needs or unforeseen emergencies.

Wise spending gives us more for our work now, and leaves more money for future spending.

It is getting full value in goods, comforts, service, advancement, and fun.

War Savings Stamps are a wise purchase.

"S. O. S." CALL FOR DENTIST

Residents of Alaskan Island Need
Services of Man Skilled with Drills and Forceps.

Is any dentist hunting for a location? Here's one. It is on Afognak, an island lying east of the entrance of Cook's inlet, on the Alaskan coast. While the icebergs float around occasionally and bump one another in the sea like giant monsters in a game of water polo, yet it is comparatively warm up there now, as the summer is coming on with its flowers and mosquitoes. But whether an Arctic winter or a brief summer is on, people will have the toothache up there near the Arctic circle the same as do the sweltering residents these days along the thirty-sixth parallel of latitude.

Miss Virginia Clark, an accomplished young woman who was born and reared on the island of Afognak, and is now teaching the youth of her native land and village, sends out this cry for a dentist. The information is given in a bulletin of the Alaska Bureau of Publicity.

"A dentist located here would have a snap," is the only information given out by Miss Clark. She gives no clew as to the financial standing of the patients, but the lucky dentist could no doubt fight off the H. C. L. nightmare by doing a piece of dental work for an Eskimo and taking his pay in walrus meat. Miss Clark does say that potatoes and garden truck thrive there, the fishing is good, and there are plenty of clams and wild ducks. Copper also is found in paying quantities, and placer gold mining is being successfully carried on along the beaches.

ALIENISTS CAN BE WRONG

Ample Proof That Even Most Able of Psychologists Are by No Means Infallible.

You will not find the word "moron" as a synonym for "alienist" in many dictionaries, for it is a word coined only very recently to describe a certain type of person who is mentally defective although not insane. Col. T. Eashy Smith of the selective service board, Washington, made a little speech at the Atlantic City meeting of the American Medical association in which he rather "guyed" his professional associates on the way they judged a man to be a moron or sub-normal in intelligence.

After relating how the board of psychology had set a certain soldier down as having the mind of a five-year-old child, he drew a hearty laugh at the expense of his colleagues by adding that this same board had analyzed the intellect of a certain member of President Wilson's cabinet and had pronounced it to be on the level of a twelve-year-old, and had in the same way set down an eminent general in command of one of our armies abroad as a ten-year-old in intelligence.

Bring Gifts to France.

A delegation from Abyssinia bearing rich gifts of ivory and silks for the announced purpose of congratulating France on her recent victory, appeared at the peace conference in Paris. This is in strict accordance with the ancient oriental procedure. The real purpose of a visit is not disclosed until preliminary ceremonies are concluded. These native Africans—claiming descent from Solomon and the queen of Sheba—wished to be in on the carving up of the world, for they have interests which are vital to them although little known to the rest of the world. Sented in that natural bastion of Africa, the Abyssinians have lived in greater or less security for unknown centuries. They are not negroes, but a mixture of Hamitic and Semitic races, with a culture of their own and professing the Christian religion, being a branch of the Coptic church of Egypt. Until recently they have been unmolested save by native tribes.

Keeps Off Potato Bugs.

And now comes a prophet, who arises in Missouri, and has published in a number of papers the following news for the especial benefit of those who detect to chase the elusive potato bug: "If a soup bean or two is dropped into each hill of potatoes when they are planted the potato bug will not bother them, and besides your crop of potatoes you will get one of beans as well. There is one farmer who has tried this experiment for five years and has never been bothered with bugs while his neighbors lost their crops. The bugs don't like the smell of the beans for some reason."—Kansas City Times.

But None Came.

Late the other night on a street car a soldier was going home for the first time. He was happy and proud. And his reason for being proud: there was a wound stripe on his right arm.

One man said to him: "Where were you wounded?" The soldier replied: "I was hit in the back with a piece of shell." The man gave a short laugh and said: "A funny place to get hit; which way were you going?"

It is needless to say that the soldier hit the man and there is what the soldier said: "If there are any more of you fellows thinks that a Yank ever ran, I can change your mind for you."—Indianapolis News.

You feed "Grain" in Winter
Why not Now?

Silage and roughage used for winter feeding are better than most pasturage. The average pasture is never balanced, never uniform throughout the season—protein being the element most lacking. Thousands of dairymen have proved that this shortage is perfectly replaced by—

Purina Cow Chow

Every 100 lbs. of Cow Chow contains 24 lbs. of protein, 85% of which is digestible. This makes it possible to balance the cow's grass ration under all conditions and obtain an average of—

6 lbs. more milk per day per cow

at an additional cost of about 6c per cow—a clear profit of about 10c per cow per day, or over $3.00 per month. Let your own cows tell you more about it. Test it yourself.

Lieut. Goodloe Morris Returns to His Home

Lieut. Goodloe F. Morris has arrived at his home in Trinity after fifteen months service with the A. E. F. in France. His company, the headquarters company of the 320th Field Artillery took part in three major engagements, Chateau-Thierry, St. Mihiel and the Meuse Argonne, coming out of the line two days before the armistice was signed.

Lieut. Morris served as signal officer for his battalion at the front. After the signing of the armistice, he attended the A. E. F. University at Beaune for three months.

Hopeless Diseases Can Not Be Cured by Doctor or Medicine

There are some diseases which are absolutely hopeless and past cure by any physician or medicine, but they may yet be palliated and a medicine if it can not help in one case it may help in another. To any one suffering from a disease a remission is a degree of health and a medicine that relieves or palliates a disease is of great benefit. We cannot guarantee to cure any disease with Number 40. For The Blood, but we quote word for word what the ingredients in 40 are recommended for in the U. S. Dispensary and New American Materia Medica. In the treatment of blood poison, an acknowledged specific among all schools of physicians removes the causes of disease and stimulates the removal of waste, thus indirectly encouraging nutrition. Disorders of the nervous system demand this remedy, such as neuralgias, chronic rheumatism, gouty conditions, mal-nutrition, auto-toxication, constipation. Used with phenomenal success in eczema and skin diseases, lumbago, glandular swellings, ulcerations of mucous membranes and in general disorders of the stomach, liver, kidneys and spleen. Prepared by J. C. Mendenhall, Evansville, Ind., 40 years a druggist. Sold by Preuit-Dillehay Drug Co.—Advertisement.

Bandits Hold Up Train No. Seven

Two day coaches and the two sleepers on the track, but well protected from accident. The four cars were pulled down the track for a distance of 2-4 of a mile, where the train was again halted by the gunmen, who climbed off. Taking the engineer with them, they proceeded to the mail car, where one of the men knocked on the door and asked that it be opened, and the clerk was forced to surrender the registered mail. It was rifled, and a meal sack was filled with the registered packages. The bandits then went to the express car, and began to question the express messenger. They were apparently amateurs, for when he told them he had signed for no valuable packages they accepted his word and left the express unmolested. The engineer was forced to start the engine again, with the throttle open, which ran wild for nearly twenty miles, stopping near Wales station after the steam had become exhausted. An engine came out from Nashville and picked up the day coaches and sleepers. The train had been delayed for nearly 3½ hours, owing to the trouble in getting word of the robbery to the railroad authorities. After turning the engine loose, the robbers climbed into an automobile and dashed away. There were four or five in the party.

Engineer Kept Nerve
Engineer Wray was highly praised for the nerve that he displayed under trying circumstances. Although he realized that he was at the mercy of the bandit gang, he succeeded in inducing them to preserve the lives of the passengers. It was at his request that a flagman was sent back, and that the wild engine was allowed to proceed southward, where the track with clear for many miles instead of back toward the stalled passenger coaches.

District Chief Naylor, of the United States secret service, was expected here today from Birmingham to assume active charge of the investigating the government officers will make of the robbery.

Southern Housewives Demand

Town Talk Flour

Because the South loves good baking, Town Talk Flour is preferred by thousands of Southern housewives.

There is a weighty reason for this preference. Not every flour will bake the delightful cakes, biscuits and pastries so justly famous in the South. It takes a flour that is truly white to do this, for a white flour contains the real whiteness of the wheat berry. It is because Town Talk is white—because it contains only the white inside of the wheat grain—that it makes such wonderful baking.

If you prefer a self-rising flour, we can offer you Town Talk in the self-rising form. The trade name is Skylark. In many parts of the South where a self-rising flour is in demand, Skylark is the choice of the very best cooks.

Buy Town Talk Flour at your grocer's today. If you want the self-rising form ask for Skylark.
